HOW IT WORKS

Start by thinking of it more like a book club than a Bible study. Read the Bible and then simply talk about what you read, using The Books of the Bible.

- READ BIG. For eight weeks, read larger portions of the Bible to get a view of God's great plan of redemption. It takes about 30 minutes a day, 5 days a week.
- READ REAL. Be sure to read the introductions to each book and use the daily e-mails to gain an understanding of the context of what you are reading.
- READ TOGETHER. Gather together in community groups each week to talk about what you read. Share your thoughts, discoveries, and responses. Use the questions on the bookmark provided to guide these open, honest discussions.

It sounds simple because it is. But the impact of reading and sharing together in this fresh new way has proven to be remarkable. So get ready for a great experience rediscovering God's Word in a format more like the original.
